We seek to employ an enthusiastic, hardworking teacher to join our team. The ideal candidate will have already gained experience in practice or post, teaching in the primary years. Applications from NQTs and others are welcomed. We are a two form entry Primary School in Burgess Hill with good travel links.

Please apply if you:

- Have enjoyed successful practice placements
- Are fully conversant of the demands of the current curriculum requirements
- Enjoy teaching and see yourself as a learner
- Want to work in a year group team
- Use a range of different teaching and learning techniques which allow children to make good progress
- Have high expectations of yourself and those you teach

We can offer you

- In-house and consultant professional development, with opportunities to review and plan with your phase
- Teamwork – PPA is generally taken with your year group partner
- Children who are ready to learn
- Supportive and friendly colleagues

Please complete a WS teaching application form and note that references will be taken up at short listing.

Closing date 28th June 2017

Interviews afternoon of 3rd July 2017

This post is subject to a DBS check with the school's policy towards safeguarding. We are committed to equal opportunities and welcome applications from majority or minority groups.
