

HARLANDS PRIMARY SCHOOL

TEACHER JOB DESCRIPTION

Post: Class Teacher KS2

Responsible to: The Headteacher

Professional Duties

The Teachers' Standards issued by the Department for Education specify that:

- Teachers make the education of their pupils their first concern
- Teachers are accountable for achieving the highest possible standards in work and conduct
- Teachers act with honesty and integrity
- Teachers have a strong subject knowledge
- Teachers keep their knowledge and skills as teachers up to date and are self-critical
- Teachers forge positive professional relationships
- Teachers work with parents in the best interests of their pupils

At Harlands all teachers will therefore:

- Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils
- Deliver the curriculum as relevant to the age and ability group/subjects that you teach
- Promote and be accountable for the attainment, progress and outcomes of pupils you teach
- Be aware of pupils' capabilities, their prior knowledge and plan teaching and differentiate appropriately to build on these, demonstrating knowledge and understanding of how pupils learn
- Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils to enable them to fulfil potential
- Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment following Harland's behaviour policies
- Have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; gifted and talented; EAL; disabilities; and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them
- Demonstrate an understanding of, and take responsibility for, promoting high standards of literacy, including the correct use of spoken English, whatever your specialist subject
- Use an appropriate range of observation, assessment, monitoring and recording strategies as a basis for setting challenging learning objectives for pupils of all backgrounds, abilities and dispositions, monitoring learners' progress and levels of attainment.
- Make accurate and productive use of assessment to secure pupils' progress

- Give pupils regular feedback both orally and through accurate marking and encourage pupils to respond to the feedback, reflect on progress, their emerging needs and to take a responsible and conscientious attitude to their own work and study
- Use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons
- Set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pupils have acquired as appropriate
- Participate in arrangements for examinations and assessments within the remit of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document

Fulfil wider professional responsibilities:

- Attend staff meetings, INSET and staff training, meeting with parents including parent consultations, report writing, liaison with outside agencies and other educational establishments, curriculum leadership activities, offsite visits including residential activities, moderation, professional evaluation and performance management
- Work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing the development of effective practice with them

Additionally:

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct. The following statements define the behaviour and attitudes which set the required standard for conduct throughout a teacher's career.

Teachers uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school, by:

- Treating pupils with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position
- Having regard for the need to safeguard pupils' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions
- Showing tolerance of, and respect for, the rights of others
- Not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- Ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit pupils' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law

Teachers must have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school in which they teach, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.

Safeguarding

Harlands is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We will ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All successful candidates will be subject to DBS checks, along with other relevant employment checks.

Notwithstanding the details in this job description, the job holder will undertake such duties as may be determined by the Headteacher from time to time up to, or on a level consistent with, the principal responsibilities of the job.
